

Biography

Jeffrey S. Lehman
New York University

Jeffrey S. Lehman is the inaugural Vice Chancellor of NYU Shanghai. He has previously been Chancellor and Founding Dean of the Peking University School of Transnational Law, President of Cornell University, Dean of the University of Michigan Law School, a tenured professor of law and public policy at the University of Michigan, a practicing lawyer in Washington, D.C., a law clerk to Associate Justice John Paul Stevens of the U.S. Supreme Court, and a law clerk to Chief Judge Frank M. Coffin of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. He is an Independent Director of Infosys Ltd. and Chairman of the Board of Infosys Public Services, Ltd. He serves on advisory boards to the Jindal School of Liberal Arts & Humanities, the Asian Women's Leadership University Project, the Nazareth Academic Institute, and Good Government International. His honors include the Friendship Award from the People's Republic of China, the National Equal Justice Award from the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., an appointment as Senior Scholar at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, an honorary doctorate from Peking University, honorary professorships from several other universities, and membership in the American Law Institute. He earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Cornell University and degrees in law and public policy from the University of Michigan.